

I have enjoyed the past 2 years that wisconsin has had a no-call list. I was getting tired of having my family dinner-time interrupted by nuisance calls, and do not appreciate being bothered later in the evening either. I will continue to support the no-call list and if it is overturned and I start getting nuisance calls again, I will not do business with any of these businesses.